QUESTION 2

Private property right is a Fundamental Human Right enshrined in the Constitution of Namibia that can only be changed by a two thirds majority. Namibia is a member of the United Nations and signatory to several international conventions that guarantee private property. Expropriating land without compensation is still a heated topic in the aftermath of the Second Land Conference in Namibia. Discuss the economic, investment, production and international implications of expropriating land without compensation.

QUESTION 3

The impact of drug related crime is much worse than the impact of corruption in the corporate world. Corporatocracy is a collusion of professionals, e.g. medical doctors, Multi-lateral Companies (MNCs) e.g. bankers, political office bearers (politicians), public office bearers and the media that collude to corrupt. There is a need for people both inside and outside of the business communities to push for changes in both national and international financial and legal architectures to reduce the opportunities for sophisticated, professionally and legalised organised criminal activities, be they professional or corporate gangsters. Propose a new system of global governance to deal with these contentious issues.
