THIS EXAMINATION PAPER CONSISTS OF 2 PAGES (Including this front page)

QUESTION 1

One function of good governance in the public sector is to ensure that entities always act in the public interest. Public Accountability, Transparency, Democracy, Public Participation and Fairness are important values/tenets of good governance. By making use of practical examples, explain in detail how each of these values may enhance good governance within the ambit of Namibian regional and local governance.

QUESTION 2

Principles and values are critical to providing sub-national government with a common moral framework regarding the way services will be provided, specifically the standards to be applied. Outline and discuss the principles and values and critically analyse institutional challenges that may undermine the promotion of such principles and values within sub-national government. Your discussion should be supported by practical examples.

QUESTION 3

Finance is critical to the operation of regional and local councils and the wide range of services they deliver. Identify and discuss the revenue sources of regional councils and local authorities in Namibia.

(25)

QUESTION 4

Many developing and transitional countries have embarked on some form of decentralisation programme. This trend relates to a growing interest in the role of civil society and the private sector as partners to governments in seeking new ways of service delivery. Identify and evaluate the notable forms of decentralisation in broad detail. Make use of practical examples to illustrate your argument.
