Is Namibia equipped and ready to engage in PPPs? Write a short essay in which you take a stance on this matter. You are encouraged to refer to relevant examples to substantiate your answer. (25)

QUESTION 3

The World Bank (World Development Report, 1997) defines Good Governance as “the manner in which power is exercised in the management of a country's economic and social resources for development”.

QUESTION 4

“Some residents of Katima Mulilo in the Zambezi region are planning to stage a protest tomorrow against alleged corruption and lack of transparency by the town council. One of the organisers of the demonstration, Fabian Sampaya, told Nampa on Friday that the residents will also demonstrate against pre-paid water meters that were installed without consulting the community. This, he said, came as a surprise to many residents because the community in informal settlements cannot afford to pay for such meters.” The Namibian (2018-05-14)

In light of the above event at Katimo Mulilo, (a) discuss the importance of a feasibility study before a PPP project is launched, and (b) develop a feasibility study template for the Town Council of Katima Mulilo to use in future scenarios. (25)
